

BRISTOL MUSEUM CURATORS' TALKS M SHED STUDIO SATURDAY 19 OCTOBER 2024 FOLLOWING THE AGM

Each autumn we invite members of the curatorial and archives team at Bristol Museums, Galleries & Archives to give us short talks on items which we have funded in the past year.

This year we are delighted to welcome Philip Walker, the new Head of Culture and Creative Industries, as the first speaker. He will give a brief overview of what to expect in the coming year in the museums service.

Kate Newnham, Senior Curator Visual Arts, will talk about the recently-acquired glass and ceramics objects.

Graham Tratt, archivist at Bristol Archives, will highlight the significance of the acquisition of the plans made by Edward Godwin for the Assize Courts in Bristol.

Chris Ecclestone, Working Exhibits Manager, and Clive Brain, a volunteer with the working exhibits team, will provide details of the extensive repairs required to keep Pyronaut in working order for her 90th birthday in June this year.

Following these talks, tea, coffee and homemade cakes will be served, with a chance to chat to the museum staff.

Do come along and find out more about what is happening in the museums service and how our funds are being used to support it.
